The Bowling Green Rose Society 2011 Rose Show is dedicated to Kent & Claire Campbell

Long Time Loyal Members, Workers, and Friends

WELCOME . . .

As president of the Bowling Green Rose Society, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to our annual rose show. For those exhibitors traveling with your roses, we want to thank you for coming to Bowling Green to share your beautiful roses in our show. We are happy to have you here and wish you the best in your exhibiting.

I want to extend thanks to all you folks in the community for coming to the show and giving us your support and encouragement. If you have any questions, please seek out a member of the Bowling Green Rose Society. We are all wearing name badges and will answer your questions or find someone who can.

A big thank you to all our sponsors and to the members of American Legion Post 23. We appreciate you. And thanks to all our members, friends and family that have come together to work before, during, and after the show.

Enjoy the show!

Kathy Dodson, BGRS President

Rules for the Show

Division I & II - Horticulture

1. Place: American Legion Post #23, 208 Dishman Lane, Bowling Green, KY.
2. Time: Doors open at 6:30 a.m. CDT on Saturday, May 21. Entries will be accepted from 7:00 a.m. until 10:00 a.m. Judging starts at 10:30 a.m. Exhibitors will place their own entries.
3. No one is allowed in the show area during judging except judges, clerks, and staff.
4. The show will be open to exhibitors when the judging is complete and the awards table is arranged. It will be open to the public from 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
5. All exhibitors should register with their name, address, email address, and society. There will be no registration numbers.
6. Official entry tags and uniform containers will be furnished unless otherwise stated in the schedule. An entry tag must be made for each specimen except collections in one container, or unless otherwise specified in the schedule.
7. Wedges are permitted, provided they are of plant stems or white or green foam (not Oasis) and do not extend above the top of the container.
8. Roses need not be registered, but must be correctly named and classified, using the ARS Exhibition name as shown in bold type in the 2011 Handbook for Selecting Roses or other ARS publications in accordance with any changes in published Guidelines.
9. Exhibitors may make as many entries as desired in each section of Division II, provided each entry is a different variety.
10. The show is alphabetical. In Division II, varieties will be placed alphabetically by their first name. Each variety will be judged on its own merits.
11. Exhibitors are expected to place their own challenge class entries. Once a challenge class entry is placed it can only be moved by a member of the show committee.
12. Any amateur grower is eligible to exhibit and may compete for ribbons and awards, except as noted in special sections and/or challenge classes. All blooms in horticulture classes must have been grown in the exhibitor's own garden - outdoors. Family members may enter as a team but not individually also.
13. Judging will be in accordance with the ARS Guidelines for Judging Roses. The decision of the judges will be final. Entries may be disqualified for reasons specified in the Guidelines or if two specimens of the same variety are entered in the same class by the same exhibitor.
14. Climbing sports of bush type roses, climbing hybrid teas, climbing grandifloras, climbing floribundas, and climbing miniatures must be exhibited in the appropriate section for their bush type counterparts.
15. The judges will select a BEST OF SHOW entry from all horticulture and artistic exhibits.
16. Roses entered or left over become the property of the Bowling Green Rose Society. Any proceeds from the disposal of such shall defray the expenses of the show.
17. Keepsake awards will be in cash. We hope it will help purchase something you want or need for your rose hobby.
18. No exhibit, certificate, ribbon, or award will be removed prior to 4:00 p.m. Saturday unless approved by the show chairmen. Unclaimed certificates will be mailed. Stickers (dots) are used in lieu of ribbons.
19. Neither the Bowling Green Rose Society nor the American Legion Post #23 assumes any responsibility or liability for loss or damage to person or property in relation to this show.
20. A judge's spouse may enter any horticulture class that is not being adjudicated by that judge.

Division III—Artistic Designs - Theme: Songs of Kentucky

Rules for Designs

The Design Division is open to all interested amateur arrangers. However, any participating individual who is not a member of a rose society is ineligible to compete for ARS ribbons and certificates, and must write “for exhibition only” on the entry tag. These individuals are eligible to receive Bowling Green Rose Society certificates, however.

1. All roses in the design classes must be garden grown and correctly named. To qualify for an ARS Medal Certificate, the rose must be arranger grown, and so indicated with “AG” in upper right corner of the entry tag.
2. Roses must be the dominant feature in all arrangements. Other flowers and foliage may be used unless otherwise stated on the schedule. Line material may include dried, treated, and/or painted material. No artificial flowers, foliage, or fruit is permitted. The American Flag is not to be used as a decoration.
3. All entry tags must be filled out completely with the exhibitor’s name and address. Roses must be correctly named on tags.
4. The division will be governed by procedures and rules for exhibiting Artistic Designs as prescribed by The American Rose Society using the ARS Scorecard for Judging Rose Arrangements:

Conformance (5 points per Category) - 15 points

- a. roses named correctly
- b. conformance to type of design
- c. other specific requirements of schedule

Design (5 points per Principles) - 30 points

Balance, dominance, contrast, rhythm, proportion, scale

Perfection of the rose(s) - 30 points

Including condition of other plant material

Creativity and Expressiveness - 15 points

Distinction - 10 points

Uniqueness, sets the design apart, superiority in every respect – includes technical execution/construction

5. An arranger may enter as many classes as he/she desires but may have only one entry per class.
6. The arranger must have his/her arrangement in place by 10:00 a.m., May 21. Under no circumstances may an exhibitor move or alter another exhibit. A committee member will help each exhibitor find his/her allotted place. Places are allocated in the order that reservations are received.
7. Arrangements are divided into two categories: Standard and Miniature/Miniflora.

Standard designs will be staged on tables in a space 24" wide by 30" deep; no height limitations. All types of roses may be used in standard arrangements.

Miniature/Miniflora designs will be staged on a table/counter in a space 12" wide by 12" deep. Miniature or miniflora roses may be used in Classes 10-15, even mixed at the exhibitor's discretion. Miniature/Miniflora arrangements cannot extend beyond 10 inches in height, width, or depth.
8. The tables are covered in black and are against a wall painted in a neutral off-white. Exhibitors may furnish their own free standing background as an intrinsic component of design, subject to size limitations stated.
9. The committee will exercise all reasonable care, but it cannot be responsible for exhibitors' properties. Properties should be labeled inconspicuously with identification.
10. Exhibitors in the design section may dismantle and remove their entries after 4 p.m. on Saturday.
11. Arrangement space is available for all exhibitors and we encourage everyone to try their hand at making an arrangement for our show. However, advanced reservations are required so that appropriate space designated with the arranger's name can be provided. In order to accommodate all exhibitors, IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT SPACE IS RESERVED SO WE CAN GUARANTEE ROOM FOR ALL ENTRIES. To do this, please make a reservation by Thursday, May 19, with:
